

ILLINOIS AUTISM/PDD TRAINING
AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE
PROJECT

ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY

FREE Online Autism Training Course now offered in conjunction with

Training Content includes:

- Introduction to ASD
  - Characteristics and Prevalence
- Person – Centered Planning
- Assessment
- Communication
  - Expressive
  - Receptive
  - Pragmatic
- Behavior
  - Introduction to ABA
  - Functional Behavior Assessment
- Sensory Processing
- Tying it all Together
  - Evidence-based practices
  - Visual Strategies
  - Discrete Trial Instruction

Target Audience:

This is a foundation level training for individuals who work and live with children and adolescents with autism/PDD. Parents and other family members, special and general educators, teacher assistants, speech/language pathologists, social workers, psychologists, behavior specialists, occupational and physical therapists and administrators will all benefit.

Registration: Course is available on demand with open start and end

Take this course at your convenience

Go to website www.illinoisautismproject.org for registration

Or paste into your browser

https://admin.acrobat.com/e28604724/event/event\_info.html

54 CPDUs or CEUs

Teachers, Social Workers, Licensed Counselors/Licensed Professional Counselors, SLP/Audiologists, Occupational Therapists, Early Intervention Credentials