

Digital Ethics Legal Workshop

Presented by Hodges, Loizzi, Eisenhammer, Rodick & Kohn LLP

Join Michelle Todd and Bennett Rodick as they discuss the key issues of privacy, confidentiality and liability that arise for school personnel in the digital world. Digital media and electronic communications open vast opportunities to improve student services and facilitate parent involvement. But, dangers lurk for the unwary.

Friday, January 5th from 9am-2pm

The Digital Ethics Legal Workshop will be held at the Eagle Performing Arts and Conference Center at 319 N. Plum St. in Pontiac. This presentation is specifically geared toward school administrators, school psychologists, and school social workers. Lunch will be catered by County Market, and will include a follow-up Q & A with Michelle Todd and Bennett Rodick.

Contact LCSSU to Register

Please register with Kim Cox-kcox@lcssu.org or Ryan Deason-rdeason@lcssu.org.

When you register, include your Name, School/Agency, Position, Contact Number, Email Address, and whether you intend on staying for lunch. Space is limited, so please register by December 20th.